BACKGROUND(Includes Description and justification)	The town of Whitestown has been working with the Indiana General Assembly for many years to pass legislation that would give the town additional 3 way alcohol licenses. This legislation would give the town 4 additional licenses that can only be used by proprietors in designated economic development areas. These licenses are obtained via a process that is separate from the population based system currently in place. The Town Council will regulate the distribution of these special licenses via Ordinance 2016-09.
